Working Conditions

You will be working onsite in our elementary school with children aged eight to eleven, working alongside Johanna. Johanna will be onsite with you all the time as will the other elementary teachers, the director of the school and other staff. The space is small but well planned out with good size classrooms and lots of outdoor space; it's a lovely place to work.

You will be working in Zone 3 of Guatemala City, this is an insecure zone of the city and you will be required to follow strict safety rules that will be explained to you when you start work; these rules are mandatory. This will include rules related to Covid-19 including mask use and social distancing, we follow national law and these rules must be adhered to.

Due to the nature of our work, the community is incredibly poor. Working in this environment can take a toll on your mental health, please ensure that you are prepared for this and are willing to talk to Safe Passage about it if you need to.

The school and Safe Passage offices have a very high level of cleanliness however, it is based next to a landfill site so the community can be dirty and the air quality is lower than you might be used to.

Guatemala is a truly fascinating country full of history, culture, traditions and places to explore. However, one of the most frustrating things is that safe places to live often come with a long commute to work because they are popular. For that reason, please understand and prepare yourself for traffic problems as we safely bring you to and from work from your host family. On a good day, it will be a two hour round trip, on a bad day it could be three or four hours so please bring things to keep yourself entertained and try on to let it get to you.

You can find more information about being a volunteer in our volunteer handbook as well as on social media. I'd encourage you to look out for our live videos, we recently did a Facebook live from the elementary and middle school which you can watch here.

How to apply:

If this volunteering position interests you, please read our Volunteer Handbook before sending your resume and a letter of introduction to volunteers@safepassage.org.
